

Newspapers In Education and the Workforce Development Council of Seattle-King County (WDC) present

WELCOME TO MAP YOUR CAREER!

Navigate the path from your first job to a great career!

Map Your Career has updated maps for 12 key industries in King County. Visit www.mapyourcareer.org to learn more.

Career Paths in Manufacturing

A wide range of certificates and degrees are offered by King County's community and technical colleges and private training providers. To learn more about the training programs available, visit www.checkoutacollege.com or www.careerbridge.wa.gov.

Chart Source: Shoreline Community College
*Wage data from EMSI Career Coach

Map Your Career has updated maps for 12 key industries in King County. Visit www.mapyourcareer.org to learn more

Manufacturing is a vital industry in our region. Local companies make a range of products, including airplanes, boats, transportation equipment, machinery, fabricated metal products, furniture, outdoor recreational equipment and much more. Manufacturing occupations are expected to grow economically over the next decade, and thousands of entry-level positions are expected to open in King County from 2016–2024 as many workers will likely retire, boosting replacement demand.

Plan more with the WDC's Self Sufficiency Calculator at www.thecalculator.org.