

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, November 29, 2015 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. In the most recent episode of charges of persistent racism toward students of color at Western Washington University last week, threats were posted anonymously on social media and they were triggered by what suggestion? (NW Sunday)
2. The Skyline High School football team knocked off Lake Stevens to advance to the state championship game, their first since what year? (Sports)
3. Russian President Vladimir Putin called for sanctions against what country on Saturday after the downing by that country last week of a Russian warplane? (Main)
4. Recent studies funded by the TKF Foundation shows that just how many minutes of exposure to nature, two to three times per week, produces mental health benefits? (NW Arts & Life)
5. A new analysis by credit tracker TransUnion found that most consumers will do what for 78 percent of their holiday spending? (Business)
6. Lance Cpl. Mike Delancey celebrated his Alive Day on September 1. What is an Alive Day an observance of? (NWAutos)
7. President Obama will join world leaders to kick off two weeks of negotiating aimed at forging a climate-change accord that for the first time would commit almost every country on earth to do what? (Main)
8. How many U.S. passports did the State Department issue in 2014? (NW Traveler)
9. The "Table-Time Look & Learn Mostly Math Tablecloth" was created by a teacher and introduces more than how many math concepts for pre-K and kindergarten students up to age 6? (Shop NW)
10. Egypt said on Saturday that there is a 90 percent chance that what will be found within King Tutankhamun's tomb, based on preliminary results of a new exploration of the 3.300 year-old mausoleum? (Main)
11. What percentage of workers said that they were more productive the week before a major holiday? (Jobs)
12. Reports by The Associated Press this year on slavery in the seafood industry have resulted in the rescue of more than how many fishermen from forced labor? (Business)
13. The late Native-American activist Lucy Covington, led the fight against a federal policy called termination, which offered members of Native American tribes what? (NW Sunday)
14. The University of Washington owns and cares for the plants at the Arboretum, but who owns the Arboretum property? (Pacific NW)
15. The Seahawk's starting tailback, Thomas Rawls, has had three 100-yard games against teams that all rank what in the NFL? (Sports)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday and Wednesday. Please share the NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2015 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, November 29, 2015

1. They were triggered by the suggestion that the school's Viking mascot didn't represent all students and should be re-examined. (B1)
2. Their first since 2012. (C8)
3. Turkey (A5)
4. 10 minutes (H8)
5. Most consumers will use one credit card for 78 percent of their holiday spending. (D3)
6. An Alive Day is an observance of the anniversary of having survived a near death experience. (G1)
7. Lowering their greenhouse-gas pollution. (A8)
8. 14 million passports (I1)
9. It introduces more than 20 math concepts. (E4)
10. Hidden chambers. (A2)
11. 32 percent (F1)
12. More than 2,000. (D1)
13. It offered members cash payments in exchange for their reservation lands. (B6)
14. The City of Seattle. (Pacific NW page 7)
15. They have all been teams that have all ranked 23rd or lower in the NFL in yards allowed per carry. (C5)