

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 20, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. How many missing U.S. service members does the Korean War account for of the nearly 83,000 missing? (NW Sunday)
2. How many points did Gonzaga hold Utah center Jakob Poeltl, the Pac-12 player of the year, to in its 82 – 59 win in the NCAA tournament's second round Saturday night? (Sports)
3. What is a caucus? (Main)
4. What music video was local independent film producer Mel Eslyn watching as a kid when something clicked inside her and she knew this was what she wanted to do? (NW Arts & Life)
5. European jet maker Airbus opened its new final-assembly plant in Mobile, Alabama. To emphasize that the planes rolling out of its plant are American-made, what are Airbus marketers doing? (Business)
6. What physicist has Jaguar turned to in order to promote its 2017 Jaguar F-Pace compact SUV? (NWAutos)
7. President Obama will make a historic trip to Cuba on Sunday. Who was the last U.S. President before Obama to visit Cuba and how many years ago was the visit? (Main)
8. The city of Portland is now a renowned North American destination for what type of tango? (NW Traveler)
9. Who made an appearance at New York Fashion Week last month, walking the runway for Marc Jacobs, and what was she sporting? (Shop NW)
10. Iain Duncan Smith, Britain's Secretary for Work and Pensions, resigned Friday over the government's plans to do what? (Main)
11. The Labor Department has submitted a proposal to the White House to extend overtime pay to millions more Americans. What did The Labor Department propose raising the minimum salary that employees must make before they can be labeled exempt from overtime? (Jobs)
12. CoreLogic says 4.3 million homes are "underwater". What does it mean when a home is "underwater"? (Business)
13. In what two Seattle locations did light-rail stations open Saturday? (NW Sunday)
14. Aikido, a Japanese martial art, is based on a philosophy of what? (Pacific NW)
15. What happened in 2007, that made Jashuan Agosoto, currently a senior at Garfield High School, the most famous 10-year-old basketball player in the history of Seattle? (Sports)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday and Wednesday. Please share the NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, March 20, 2016

1. 7,821 missing. (B7)
2. They held him to five points. (C9)
3. A caucus is a neighborhood-level meeting organized by political parties to choose their preferred candidates and discuss other party business. (A12)
4. She was watching the music video "Somewhere Out There". (H1)
5. Airbus marketers are sticking a couple of extra letters on the model designation, making it USA32. (D1)
6. Stephen Hawking (G1)
7. Calvin Coolidge was the last U.S. president to visit Cuba. It was 88 years ago. (A1)
8. Argentine tango. (I5)
9. Lady Gaga. She was sporting an oversized neck bow. (E2)
10. He resigned over the government's plans to cut benefits for the disabled while giving tax breaks for the better off. (A10)
11. $50,440 a year. (F1)
12. It means that the value of the home is less than the amount the owner owes on his or her mortgage. (D3)
13. Light rail stations opened in Capital Hill and the University of Washington on Saturday. (B1)
14. It is based on a philosophy of harmony. (Pacific NW page 4)
15. His father Julio uploaded a video of him to YouTube of his dribbling and basketball skills and the video exploded in popularity. (C1)