

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, May 8, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. North Korean leader Kim Jong Un said during a ruling-party congress that his country won't use its nuclear weapons first unless what happens? (Main)
2. In what year did Atlanta pharmacist John Pemberton began selling the original version of Coca-Cola, which he'd invented? (Main)
3. Women are bankrolling political campaigns this year more than ever, driven by what three things? (Main)
4. An Ivy League professor said his flight was delayed 2 hours. Why? (Main)
5. The daughter of the late Slipknot bassist Paul Gray can sue a doctor for the loss of her father's companionship, even though she was a _____ when he died, the Iowa Supreme Court ruled Friday. (Main)
6. Woven into his advice to the 2,300 graduates of the historically black college founded two years after the Civil War was a lengthy political to-do list, including an admonishment for young people to vote. "You have to go through life with more than just a passion for change, you need a strategy," Obama said. "Your plan better include voting, not just some of the time, but all of the time." Where did President Obama give this speech? (Main)
7. What is the "Free-floating" car share business model? (Main)
8. Just over a year ago, Mayor Ed Murray and other local officials launched — with great fanfare — a new push to disrupt and shut down an open-air drug market in Seattle's downtown core. They called the approach the "9½ Block Strategy," naming it for the bustling area bounded by First and Fourth avenues and Union and Stewart streets and promising it would take violent drug dealers off the street. Has the plan reduced crime? If so, by what percentage? (NW Sunday)
9. Drove of baby starfish are returning to Oregon and Northern California shores after a wasting disease decimated whole populations of the creatures over the past two years along the West Coast. Experts say that while it's encouraging to see the abundance of baby starfish, what three things make their survival difficult? (NW Sunday)
10. A small airplane crashed just north of Anchorage last month, killing all four people on board, authorities say. It is the nation's first civilian plane crash to result in deaths after an impact with what kind of animal? (NW Sunday)

Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, May 8, 2016

1. Its sovereignty is invaded. (Main, Newsline, A2)
2. 1886 (Main, Newsline, A2)
3. Their rising rank in the workplace, boosts in women's wealth, and networks set up to gather their donations and bolster their influence. (Main, A4)
4. Because a fellow passenger thought the math equations he was writing might be a sign he was a terrorist. (Main, A5)
5. Fetus (Main, A5)
6. President Obama was not overtly political about the 2016 election season as he delivered the 148th commencement address at Howard University on Saturday. (Main, A11)
7. It is a business model where customers rent vehicles for short periods of time, by the minute, without a fixed pick-up or drop-off point. It provides easy access to an automobile for people who occasionally drive or might need a different type of vehicle than the one they own. It is the auto outgrowth of the sharing economy. (Main, A13)
8. Today, the mayor's office contends the strategy has reduced overall crime in the area, including Westlake Park, by about 30 percent, at a cost of $1 million. (NW Sunday, B)
9. The disease, competition and environmental factors make their survival difficult. (NW Sunday,B3)
10. Bald eagle (NW Sunday,B8)