

Scavenger Hunt

Today's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, June 26, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. In 2009, Bill Cunningham was declared as a what by the New York Landmarks Conservancy? (MAIN)
2. In which three states do nearly two-thirds of all Amish live? (MAIN)
3. How much money has the community college system received from the legislature this biennium? (NW Sunday)
4. What percentage of students appearing in King County courts for school-related offenses are children of color? (MAIN)
5. How many major buildings are under construction across Seattle's downtown, South Lake Union and surrounding neighborhoods? (Business)
6. China and Taiwan have been estranged since when? (MAIN)
7. Describe the size of Ken Ham's "Ark Encounter". (MAIN)
8. What are some of the possible effects of excess calcium intake? (NW Arts & Life)
9. During WWII Winston Churchill ordered that numbers of which animal not drop below 24? Why? (NW Traveler)
10. Britain has an important (and some would argue outsize) place in what postwar institutions? (MAIN)

Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, June 26, 2016

1. A living landmark (MAIN A5)
2. Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Indiana (MAIN, A6)
3. 1.37 billion (NW Sunday, B1)
4. 70 percent (MAIN, A16)
5. 65 (Business, D1)
6. Taiwan and China have been estranged since the Communist revolution of 1949. (MAIN, A4)
7. The ark stretches 1 ½ football fields long, rises as high as a seven-story building and is said to be the largest timber-frame building in the world. (MAIN, A6)
8. Emerging evidence suggests that excess calcium may increase the risk of hip fracture in women, prostate cancer in men, and cardiovascular disease, including heart attacks, in both. (NW Arts & Life, H6)
9. Barbary macaques. They have lived in Gibraltar since the British first captured the Rock in 1704 and have remained through many sieges. Folklore says the British will leave the Rock only when the monkeys do. (NW Traveler, I4)
10. It has an important (some would argue outsize) place in the United Nations, and a role in NATO, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank — the postwar institutions invested with promoting global peace, security and economic prosperity. (MAIN, A12)