

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 11, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Close to 2 million people from around the world began performing the first rites of the Islamic hajj pilgrimage on Saturday. What does this ritual call for? (MAIN)
2. This photo has become one of the most famous photographs of the 20th century and was taken by Alfred Eisenstaedt. It's called "V-J Day in Times Square" but is known to most of the world as "The Kiss." What was the date and what were they celebrating? (MAIN)
3. The Seattle Seahawks played their first game today. Who did they play? (MAIN)
4. Uber will introduce a fleet of self-driving cars in _____, making this former steel town the first U.S. city to let passengers hail autonomous vehicles. (MAIN)
5. Samsung Electronics on Saturday urged consumers to stop using Galaxy Note 7 smartphones immediately and exchange them as soon as possible. Why? (MAIN)
6. With a new promise of $20 million to help defeat Donald Trump, billionaire Facebook co-founder Dustin Moskovitz becomes what? (MAIN)
7. The man who tried to assassinate President Reagan was released from a Washington mental hospital Saturday, more than _____ years after the shooting. (MAIN)
8. The black-and-white revenge tale "The Woman Who Left" by Filipino director Lav Diaz won the Golden Lion prize for best picture Saturday at the Venice Film Festival. Diaz, 57, has described his film as a testimony to what? (MAIN)
9. A new scholarship program intended to rival the prestigious Rhodes scholarships and build understanding between China and the world opened at Beijing's prestigious Tsinghua University on Saturday. The program, founded by Wall Street tycoon Stephen Schwarzman, will cover what? (MAIN)
10. In his weekly radio and internet address, Obama said that while much has changed in the years since 9/11 it's important to remember what has stayed the same. What as his statement? (MAIN)

News Break is posted to the Web on Wednesday and Friday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, September 11, 2016

1. The ritual calls for entering into a state of physical and spiritual purity and circling the cube-shaped Kaaba with their palms facing upward in supplication and prayer. (MAIN, A2)
2. Aug. 14, 1945, known as V-J Day, the day the Japanese surrendered. (MAIN, A2)
3. Miami Dolphins (MAIN, A3)
4. Pittsburgh (MAIN, A3)
5. As more reports of the phones catching fire are emerging, even after the company's global recall. (MAIN, A6)
6. One of the top Democratic donors of the election (MAIN, A6)
7. 35 years (MAIN, A8)
8. The struggles of the Philippines after centuries of colonial rule. The nearly four-hour movie is about a woman's thirst for revenge and her feelings of forgiveness after 30 years in jail for a crime she did not commit. "This is for my country, for the Filipino people, for our struggle, for the struggle of humanity," Diaz said. (MAIN, A8)
9. It will cover all expenses for students in a one-year master's degree program that will also emphasize cultural immersion, travel around China and efforts to understand the world's second-largest economy and rising superpower. (MAIN, A10)
10. "The core values that define us as Americans. The resilience that sustains us," he said on the eve of the 15th anniversary of the attacks. (MAIN, A13)