

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 25, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Austrian Chancellor Christian Kern vowed Saturday to better protect the European Union's (EU) outer borders to curb what? (MAIN)
2. What happened today in history in 1789? (MAIN)
3. Prince William, his wife, Kate, and their two children arrived in Victoria, B.C., on Saturday for what occasion? (MAIN)
4. Get ready for a busy Monday night. Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump square off at 6 p.m. in what? (MAIN)
5. WASHINGTON — President Obama, dedicating the National Museum of African American History and Culture on Saturday, said it would tell an American story. What did he say? (MAIN)
6. The uniquely uncivil presidential campaign is about to produce one of the biggest civic gatherings in decades: For 90 minutes Monday night, a polarized nation will pause to watch the first head-to-head encounter between Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump. The total audience, network executives and political strategists say, could be as high as _____ million viewers — Super Bowl territory. (MAIN)
7. The New York Times endorsed former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton for president, saying what about the Democrat? (MAIN)
8. After locking down Buddhist monasteries in Tibet and tearing down church crosses in eastern China, President Xi Jinping's campaign against unapproved religion and foreign influence has turned to an unlikely adversary. What group is this? (MAIN)
9. Race is at the forefront of many Americans' minds these days, and it's in the foreground of many of the works of art in the exhibition "30 Americans," which had its West Coast debut at the Tacoma Art Museum on Saturday. It's an important show, full of great works by African-American artists who have reflected, in very different ways, on the experiences of being black in America. It's an exhibition that can do what? (NW SUNDAY)
10. What animal will need leashes just like dogs if a proposal before the Kenai council wins approval? (NW Sunday)

Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition of the newspaper please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, September 25, 2016

1. To curb illegal migration, as he held a summit with his German, Greek and west Balkans counterparts to debate strategies to deal with Europe's migrant crisis. "We need to regain control over our external border," Kern said at a news conference after the Vienna summit. (MAIN, A2)
2. The first United States Congress adopted 12 amendments to the Constitution and sent them to the states for ratification. (Ten of the amendments became the Bill of Rights.) (MAIN, A2)
3. Their first official trip overseas as a family of four. (MAIN, A2)
4. Their first of three scheduled presidential debates (MAIN, A3)
5. One of "suffering and delight, one of fear, but also of hope, of wandering in the wilderness, and then seeing, out on the horizon, a glimmer of the Promised Land." (MAIN, A3)
6. 100 million viewers (MAIN, A4)
7. "Record of service and a raft of pragmatic ideas" represent the best choice to tackle the challenges the U.S. faces. (MAIN, A4)
8. A small group of Jews whose ancestors settled in the now faded imperial city of Kaifeng near the banks of the Yellow River more than 1,000 years ago. (MAIN, A6)
9. Spark conversations about the history of injustice, the nuances of individual, racial and cultural identities, and the continuing inequalities in this country. (NW SUNDAY, B1)
10. Cats (NW SUNDAY, B2)