

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, November 6, 2016 e-Edition of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Sevyne Streeter and the Philadelphia 76ers have decided on a date for the singer to come back and perform the national anthem after the team didn't allow her to sing. Why didn't they allow her to sing? (MAIN)
2. The leader of Britain's opposition Labour Party says Prime Minister Theresa May's government is resisting "democratic scrutiny" of the Brexit process. Why? (MAIN)
3. Scientists will mix biology and geology this month inside Hawaii Volcanoes National Park as they help NASA get ready for an eventual manned mission to Mars. What will the researchers do? What is the purpose of this project? (MAIN)
4. Today in History: Former Illinois Congressman Abraham Lincoln of the Republican Party was elected president of the United States as he defeated John Breckinridge, John Bell and Stephen Douglas. What year? (MAIN)
5. Tens of thousands of South Koreans poured into the streets of downtown Seoul on Saturday, using words including "treason" and "criminal" to demand what action? (MAIN)
6. Chicago Cubs players celebrate the final out as the Cubs win the World Series over the Cleveland Indians. The Cubs took the best-of-seven series 4-3. How many years did The Cubs and their fans have to wait for this win? (MAIN)
7. A successful immigrant and Chobani founder, who is creating jobs and sharing his wealth with employees, is now the target of _____ for his advocacy. (MAIN)
8. Surveillance cameras captured a slow-moving SUV hitting a 2-year-old girl who had veered into its path. Her mother, trailing behind on a street in a provincial Chinese city, had been glued to her phone and appeared not to notice that the vehicle had started moving. By the time an ambulance arrived, the girl had died. What has this tragedy started in China? (MAIN)
9. How do you get people with extreme beliefs to change their minds, or at least open them a little? It may sound counterintuitive, but a new study suggests that instead of arguing with them, you might try what? (MAIN)
10. BOSTON — The television ads are relentless, fueled by a historic surge of campaign spending. Fliers are clogging mailboxes. Both sides are knocking on doors across the state. But in deep blue Massachusetts, the contentious campaigning is not for president but for a ballot question on whether to expand what? (MAIN)

News Break is posted to the Web on Wednesday and Friday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the electronic edition for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2016 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, November 6, 2016

1. Because she was wearing a “We Matter” jersey. In statements to The Associated Press on Saturday, the Sixers and Streeter said she would perform wearing her “We Matter” jersey at the team’s Dec. 16 home game against the Los Angeles Lakers. (MAIN, A2)
2. Because it has not developed any plans for leaving the 28-nation bloc. Jeremy Corbyn on Saturday called on May to immediately spell out her Brexit negotiating terms to Parliament now that Britain’s High Court has ruled that Parliament must give its approval before formal talks begin. (MAIN, A2)
3. Researchers will hike around Mauna Ulu to practice collecting rock samples as they would on the Red Planet, The Hawaii Tribune-Herald reported Friday. The purpose is to develop protocols that would be used on a real Mars mission to identify and protect samples that could host life. (MAIN, A2)
4. 1860 (MAIN, A2)
5. That President Park Geun-hye step down amid an explosive political scandal. (MAIN, A2)
6. Cubs fans waited 108 years for this
7. Conspiracy theories (MAIN, A4)
8. A video showing an SUV running over a toddler while her mother appeared distracted by her phone has prompted handwringing on Chinese social media about the perils of overusing smartphones. (MAIN, A5)
9. Agreeing — with great enthusiasm. (MAIN, A6)
10. Expand charter schools (MAIN, A13)