

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, January 15, 2017 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. INAUGURATION CEREMONY-Donald J. Trump will be sworn in as president at 9 a.m. Pacific time, with a parade and inaugural balls to follow. What day this week will this take place? (MAIN)
2. For more than two years now, Lummi Nation has been unable to reliably open its prime clam beds on its reservation for harvest because of bacterial pollution in Portage Bay, near Bellingham. Now in an unusual leap of faith, what two groups are launching a collaborative effort to clean up the bay? (MAIN)
3. After _____ years, the curtain is coming down on "The Greatest Show on Earth." The owner of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus said the show will close forever in May. (MAIN)
4. Inspired in part by the "Downton Abbey" television drama, China's once raw and raucous tycoons are aspiring to old-school decorum, fueling demand for the services of whom? How do they want them trained? (MAIN)
5. By 2015, China had _____ billionaires and billionaire families, an increase of 65 from a year earlier, according to Forbes' annual list. (MAIN)
6. Today in history: What year was England's Queen Elizabeth I crowned in Westminster Abbey? (MAIN)
7. What was unique about the investor group that funded, Jersey Boys, a promising musical at their hometown theater that was seeking a shot at Broadway? How much did they raise? What did the Broadway musical gross? (MAIN)
8. VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. — A Falcon 9 rocket roared into the sky Saturday carrying 10 communications satellites in a return by SpaceX. Who is its billionaire leader? (MAIN)
9. "Hidden Figures" continued to rule the box office Friday, edging out competition from "La La Land" and "Patriots Day" and supernatural newcomer "The Bye Bye Man." What is the drama about and how much did it gross? (MAIN)
10. Zhou Youguang died Saturday in Beijing, Chinese state media reported. He was 111. He was known as the father of Pinyin. What did he develop? (MAIN)

News Break is posted to the Web on Monday and Wednesday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655.

Copyright © 2017 The Seattle Times Company

News Break Scavenger Hunt Answer Key for Sunday, January 15, 2017

1. Friday, January 20, 2017 (MAIN, A1)
2. Tribal leaders and seven family dairy-farm operators in Whatcom County (MAIN, A1)
3. 146 years (MAIN, A1)
4. Homegrown butlers trained in the ways of a British manor. (MAIN, A2)
5. 400 billionaires (MAIN, A2)
6. 1559 (MAIN, A2)
7. A San Diego dentist put in $12,500. A venture capitalist was good for $1.4 million. There were a literary agent, a psychotherapist and a smattering of doctors, lawyers and academics, all investing together in a promising musical at their hometown theater that was seeking a shot at Broadway. That small posse from San Diego ended up pooling a significant portion of the $7.8 million. The show has grossed more than $2 billion worldwide. (MAIN, A4)
8. Elon Musk (MAIN, A7)
9. The crowd-pleasing drama about black female mathematicians at NASA grossed $5.5 million Friday. (MAIN, A7)
10. He was known as the father of Pinyin for creating the system of Romanized Chinese writing that has become the international standard since its introduction some 60 years ago, (MAIN, A8)