

Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 19, 2017 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. In Washington State, the number of foreign agricultural workers like Fabian has more than quadrupled in the past half-decade to more than 13,000 annually as growers seek to ease what? (MAIN)
2. Chelsea Clinton is joining the board of directors of online travel booking site Expedia. How much is estimated she'll earn each year? (MAIN)
3. Hanna Steinker, 13, takes her cow Luna out Saturday for a gallop in Ellenserdammersiel, Germany. Steinker has trained the animal to perform like what other animal? What does the cow do? (MAIN)
4. In 1987, Howard Shultz and other investors purchased Starbucks. At that time, there was only 17 stores. As of March 2017, how many stores are there?
5. Small-town America relies on a steady flow of doctors from around the world to deliver babies, treat heart ailments and address its residents' medical needs. What is the percentage of all physicians practicing or training in the United States that are foreign born? How many international medical graduates were practicing in the United States as of December 2015? (MAIN)
6. What is the G-20? (MAIN)
7. When you stroll the aisles of the Made in America Store, you might notice a conspicuous absence. What's missing? (MAIN)
8. The third-seeded Huskies withstood an offensive onslaught from Peyton Ferris to move past No. 14 Montana State and capture a 91-63 victory in what tournament? (SPORTS)
9. What's in a G? What does it stand for and what does it identify, in cell phone terms? Describe G, 1G, 2G, 3G, 4G and upcoming 5G. (BUSINESS)
10. China is developing the C919, a 168-seat plane with ambitions of eventually challenging the duopoly of Airbus Group and Boeing in the global aviation market. Why is China branching out into aviation? (BUSINESS)

News Break is posted to the Web on Wednesday and Friday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2017 The Seattle Times Company