

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, May 21, 2017 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The United Nations defines a refugee as someone forced to flee his or her country because of what three things? (MAIN)
2. Lions, tigers and clowns, no more. It is curtains for the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus. This weekend is the final chance for people to see death-defying acrobats, exotic animals and flashy costumes as the circus ends its _____-year reign as one of the world's biggest big tops. (MAIN)
3. A boy wears a protective mask Saturday as Mount Sinabung spews volcanic ash in the background on the Indonesian island of _____. The volcano, one of the most active in Indonesia, began erupting early Saturday, accompanied by a swarm of volcanic earthquakes. (MAIN)
4. Evan Williams, a co-founder of Twitter, says he's sorry if the popular social-media platform helped put Donald Trump in the White House, as the president has suggested. In an interview with The New York Times, Williams says Twitter's role in Trump's populist rise is "a very bad thing." The president has credited _____ with his election. (MAIN)
5. Fighting to save his job amid a growing corruption scandal, Brazilian President Michel Temer told the nation Saturday that an incriminating audio recording of him had been doctored. Temer said he has petitioned Brazil's high court to suspend the investigation until what is done? (MAIN)
6. TODAY IN HISTORY: What year did Clara Barton found the American Red Cross? (MAIN)
7. TODAY IN HISTORY: What year did Charles Lindbergh land his Spirit of St. Louis monoplane near Paris, completing the first solo airplane flight across the Atlantic Ocean in 33 ½ hours? (MAIN)
8. Under the kingdom's strict dress code for women, Saudi women and most female visitors are required to wear what? (MAIN)
9. Two likely future British kings were there, along with one of the world's most photographed women, the often-adorable Prince Harry, a multilingual tennis legend and a brash TV-reality star.

But all eyes were on _____ on Saturday as she walked down the aisle of a 12th-century church wearing a custom hand-embroidered gown with a tiara and long veil to marry hedge fund manager James Matthews. (MAIN)

10. President Donald Trump's fiscal 2018 budget proposal would cut the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Office of Science and Technology nearly in half, while paring by _____ percent funding for EPA employees who oversee and put in place environmental regulations, according to a White House document that was shared with The New York Times. (MAIN)

News Break is posted to the Web on Wednesday and Friday. Please share this NIE News Break program with other teachers. To sign-up for the print replica for your class, please call 206/652-6290 or toll-free 1-888/775-2655. Copyright © 2017 The Seattle Times Company