News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday’s News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 28, 2021 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. TODAY IN HISTORY: Nathaniel Briggs of New Hampshire received a patent for a washing machine. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
2. China agreed to invest $______ billion in Iran over 25 years in exchange for a steady supply of oil to fuel its growing economy under an economic and security agreement signed Saturday. (MAIN)
3. Dr. Bindi J. Naik-Mathuria, a pediatric trauma surgeon at Texas Children's Hospital who grew tired of seeing toddlers die of gunshot wounds, has a $684,000 federal grant to track what? What is the goal of this new program? (MAIN)
4. Last week, scientists issued a new paper concluding that fish farming, in many parts of the world, at least, is a whole lot better. What was the most significant improvement? (MAIN)
5. ______________ accounts for one-quarter of the world’s daily COVID-19 deaths, far more than any other single nation, and health experts are warning that the nation is on the verge of even greater calamity. (MAIN)
6. Gov. Inslee signed an executive proclamation that all K-5 schools need to offer at least some in-person classes starting when? Middle and high schools are required to open by April _____. (NW)
7. Two months into the new administration, labor leaders are proclaiming Joe Biden to be the most ___________-__________ president of their lifetime — and “maybe ever,” as Steve Rosenthal, a former political director for the AFL-CIO, said in an interview. (BUSINESS)
8. Netflix saw its popularity surge in the first half of 2020, adding _____ million to its growing audience of paid subscribers worldwide. (BUSINESS)
9. What word inspired the first cut-paper portrait Seattle artist Barbara Earl Thomas created in the series that appears in “The Geography of Innocence,” on view now at the Seattle Art Museum? (THE MIX)
10. Keeping a journal is a great way to express and understand your emotions and be proactive about your mental health. Research shows that writing down your __________ and ____________ has multiple mental health benefits. (ACTIVE AGING)