

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 18, 2022 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. What are West Seattleites celebrating? (MAIN)
2. Seven decades after _____ died out in India, they're back. eight big cats from Namibia made the long trek Saturday in a chartered cargo flight to the northern Indian city of Gwalior, part of an ambitious and hotly contested plan to reintroduce them back into the South Asian country. (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: The first edition of the New York times was published. What year did this happen? (MAIN)
4. Luxury car makers are investing in companies that are expanding in Washington, making the state a hub that could revolutionize what industry? (NW)
5. What is the estimated number of packages the Renton facility has been moving per day since its launch Aug. 31? What is that number expected to increase to? (BUSINESS)
6. The monthly payments (about $500/month for a specific amount of time-generally 18-24 months) are part of a pilot program from the city of Los Angeles, one of the nation's largest experiments with a _____ for those living at poverty levels. The idea is that the best way to close the wealth gap and give people the opportunity to build a more stable life is to provide unrestricted cash payments to some of the most vulnerable Americans. (BUSINESS)
7. _____ is an autoimmune disease in which the body's immune system inappropriately reacts to gluten, a protein found in wheat, rye and barley, and affects about 1 out of every 100 people. (THE MIX)
8. What is an imu? (AT HOME IN THE NW)
9. "The evidence is so strong at this point, after so many studies, that we have confirmed that time in _____, including gardening, is absolutely beneficial to us in a number of ways." (AT HOME IN THE NW)
10. What image is seen on the front cover of PACIFIC NW? (PACIFIC NW)