

News Break Scavenger Hunt

News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 12, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The proposal to drill for oil has also galvanized young voters and climate activists, many of whom helped elect Biden and who would view the decision as a betrayal of the president's promise that he would pivot the nation away from what? (MAIN)
2. Frustrated by the perennial failure of school bonds, this tiny district is suing the state in a move that, if successful, could change the way school building construction is _____ across Washington. (MAIN)
3. A child marriage bill is heading to the West Virginia governor's desk after lawmakers agreed to let whom get married with restrictions? (MAIN)
4. TODAY IN HISTORY: Lt. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant assumed command as general-in-chief of the Union armies in the Civil War. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
5. Hawaii's second-largest and world's most active volcano, is likely to resume erupting soon after a brief pause. Which volcano are they talking about? (MAIN)
6. High school students testify Thursday at the Oregon State Capitol in Salem in support of a bill that would require what? (MAIN)
7. While Mexican drug cartels thrive in a vacuum of law and order that persists inside Mexico, there is an unspoken rule that many members of organized criminal groups are careful not to cross. What is it? (MAIN)
8. Griffith and thousands of other Seattle-area residents have for decades grown fresh vegetables and herbs in public gardening spaces known as P-Patches. Revered by residents, the program is celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2023, marking the occasion with events and improvement projects at some of its _____ gardens throughout the city. (NW)
9. Only about _____% of Washington's high school class of 2021 enrolled in a two- or four-year institution within a year of high school graduation, according to the analysis by the Washington Student Achievement Council. That's a nine-percentage point drop from the class of 2019. (NW)
10. The results contradict a famous 2010 paper by the psychologist Daniel Kahneman and economist Angus Deaton, which reported that happiness goes up with income until the relationship starts to "flatten" at between $_____ and $_____ a year. (BUSINESS)