

News Break Scavenger Hunt

News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 26, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. What will happen if House Bill 1110 Passes in WA State? (MAIN)
2. Recent moves by President Joe Biden to pressure TikTok over its Chinese ownership and approve oil drilling in an untapped area of Alaska are testing the loyalty of _____ voters, a group that's largely been in his corner. (MAIN)
3. BOISE, Idaho — Republican Gov. Brad Little signed a bill allowing execution by _____, making Idaho the latest state to turn to older methods of capital punishment amid a nationwide shortage of lethal-injection drugs. (MAIN)
4. Japan sits on so much geothermal energy potential. If harnessed to generate electricity, it could play a major role in replacing the nation's coal, gas or nuclear plants. For decades, however, Japan's geothermal energy ambitions have been blocked by whom? (MAIN)
5. Contractors who employ Black, Latino and Asian Amazon drivers say their employees of color get worse customer feedback, which can affect what two things? (BUSINESS)
6. Demand has never been stronger for _____ in Dubai, where diners expect to be offered dishes adorned with caviar, truffle or even gold leaf — at a premium price, of course. The import value of truffles into the United Arab Emirates neared $4 million for the first time in 2021 and was up 113% from 2017, according to United Nations trade data. (BUSINESS)
7. Personality testing is roughly a $_____ billion industry, according to Tomas Chamorro-Premuzic, a psychology professor and author of "I, Human," who estimated the value of the largest personality testing companies. (BUSINESS)
8. Echohawk was responding to the news this month that two Western Washington artists pleaded guilty to charges of _____ Native American heritage to sell their art. (THE MIX)
9. A decade in the making, "_____ " recounts the history of Tacoma's 1885 expulsion of its Chinese residents and the destruction of its Chinatown. (THE MIX)
10. American adults consume an average of 77 grams of added sugar per day, with _____ being the biggest source. (THE MIX)