News Break Scavenger Hunt

News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, June 11, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. TODAY IN HISTORY: Three prisoners at Alcatraz in San Francisco Bay staged an escape, leaving the island on a makeshift raft; they were never found or heard from again. What year did this take place? (MAIN)

2. Four Indigenous children survived an Amazon plane crash that killed three adults and then braved the jungle for 40 days before being found alive by Colombian soldiers, bringing a happy ending to a search-and-rescue saga that captivated a nation and forced the usually opposing military and Indigenous people to work together. What 2 things were key elements to their survival? (MAIN)

3. Indonesia’s __________ __________ volcano has erupted, spewing ash as high as 2 miles into the air, officials said Saturday. (MAIN)

4. After months of negotiations, about 2,400 UW researchers went on strike Wednesday after failing to reach a contract agreement. The group of research scientists and engineers, represented by United Auto Workers Local 4121, have not reached agreement on three core demands—what are they? (MAIN)

5. And now her legacy is being formalized Sunday when the Storm will retire Bird’s iconic # ______ jersey and raise it to the rafters at Climate Pledge Arena after their game against the Washington Mystics. (SPORTS)

6. The Packaging Innovation Lab is one of Amazon’s efforts to reduce the considerable amount of __________ it generates. (BUSINESS)

7. Fabrics from __________ owned by Anne Sykes, who maintained a diary of her clothing during the 19th century. Her story is told in the new book “The Dress Diary: Secrets from a Victorian Woman’s Wardrobe.” (THE MIX)

8. What does AI stand for? (THE MIX)

9. When it comes to pest control, toads are nature’s Orkin men. What do they do in the garden? (AT HOME IN THE NW)

10. Many people are choosing to restore physically and mentally through yoga classes designed to help you rest. Yoga is a well-loved option for movement and mindfulness, with _____% of people in the United States practicing in 2017. (PACIFIC NW)