

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 10, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. A painstakingly negotiated declaration Saturday evening at the _____ summit in New Delhi omitted any condemnation of Russia's invasion of Ukraine or its brutal conduct of the war, instead lamenting the "suffering" of the Ukrainian people. (MAIN)
2. The group of the world's 20 leading economies is welcoming the _____ as a permanent member, a powerful acknowledgment of Africa as its more than 50 countries seek a more important role on the global stage. (MAIN)
3. During the 2020 census, Native American leaders across the U.S. invested time and resources to make sure their members were tallied during the head count, which determines what two main things? (MAIN)
4. Hurricane Lee is rewriting old rules of meteorology, leaving experts astonished at how rapidly it grew into a goliath _____ hurricane. (MAIN)
5. New Mexico Gov. Michelle Lujan Grisham's emergency order suspending the right to carry _____ in public in and around Albuquerque will spur a legal fight but might also raise public awareness about gun violence, legal scholars and advocates said. (MAIN)
6. Visitors take in a performance during last year's Walk the Block, a yearly festival organized by Seattle arts center Wa Na Wari. To Wa Na Wari co-founder Elisheba Johnson, people are craving events where they can come together and enjoy art, food and community-building. "We have an epidemic of _____," she said. (MAIN)
7. Gov. Jay Inslee on Saturday endorsed Attorney General _____ in next year's race for governor, handpicking him early — from a competitive Democratic field — as his chosen successor. (MAIN)
8. Jewell Loyd is staying in Seattle. The five-time WNBA All-Star ended months of speculation over her future destination ahead of free agency, signing a two-year guaranteed contract extension with the Storm that's worth $_____, according to multiple reports. (SPORTS)
9. The return of the _____ to greater numbers than observed in decades is part of a larger revival of marine mammals in the Salish Sea. It is an astonishing sight of life rebounding, with exception of the endangered southern residents orcas. (NW)
10. It's estimated that _____ million Americans have osteoporosis, and 44 million others have low bone density, according to the Bone Health & Osteoporosis Foundation. While 1 in 2 women and up to 1 in 4 men will break a bone due to osteoporosis after age 50, the stage is set long before that. (THE MIX)