News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday’s News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, October 22, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The history of Lahaina, though — and the history of its most famous tree — is complicated, intertwined with the painful loss of land and sovereignty for Native Hawaiians. For many of those descendants, the banyan tree is a remnant of ____________, planted by a son of missionaries who helped overthrow the Hawaiian kingdom, which in turn paved the way for annexation by the United States five years later and, eventually, statehood. (MAIN)

2. ____________ became the largest nationality arrested for illegally crossing the U.S. border, replacing Mexicans for the first time on record, according to figures released Saturday that show September was the second-highest month for arrests of all nationalities. (MAIN)

3. People hold up signs in support of the Seattle Housing Levy at the corner of Rainier Avenue South and South Dearborn Street on Friday. The property tax measure would cost the owner of a median $855,000 home about $________ a year. (MAIN)

4. For any Washington farmer, 2020 was a desperate year. That spring, with a COVID-19 vaccine still distant, disruptions to the economy and supply chains sent unemployment, poverty and food insecurity rates soaring, magnifying what? (NW)

5. Washington’s seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 3.6% in September, below the 3.8% rate nationally and where economists consider “_________ ________________.” (BUSINESS)

6. Goodwill knows it needs to figure out e-commerce. At stake, the nonprofit retailer says, is its ability to generate enough revenue to fulfill its mission. What is their mission? (BUSINESS)

7. In a 2020 Pew Research survey, more than _____% of parents reported sharing photos, videos and information about their children on social media sites. Experts were unable to say how many parents are sharing those images only on private social media accounts, as opposed to publicly, but they said private sharing was an increasingly common practice. (BUSINESS)

8. ____________, a local, Indigenous-owned and -operated lifestyle brand, has seemingly found a formula for explosive growth and international acclaim. (THE MIX)

9. In 2020, people 65 years and older in the U.S. reached ________ million, nearly 17% of the population, according to the 2020 U.S. census. (THE MIX)

10. Studies show that seniors who stay “plugged in” lessen their chances of becoming “_________ _____________” who grow old alone, without family or social connections. (AGING WELL/SPECIAL SECTION)