News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday’s News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, November 5, 2023 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Voters in Ohio will decide this week whether to legalize recreational marijuana, but people on both sides of the issue say more hangs in the balance than simply __________________ the drug. (MAIN)
2. Her goals include using artificial intelligence to help the world eradicate malaria by 2030, a project she is focused on at her health startup. Who is she? (MAIN)
3. Thousands of people are trapped in long-dead marriages in the Philippines, the only country in the world, other than the Vatican, where divorce remains _______________. They live completely separate lives from their spouses, after splitting up for reasons like abuse and incompatibility. Steep legal fees and mounds of paperwork make annulment practically impossible for many. (MAIN)
4. Today, the most popular degree is business, at _____% of all bachelor’s degrees, while social sciences trail far behind at just _____% of degrees. (MAIN)
5. Macarena, holding an album by Taylor Swift, is part of a group calling on fans of the pop star to vote against Argentine presidential candidate Javier Milei. Why? (MAIN)
6. At the September 2023 edition of ______________—one of the largest gaming conventions in the world, held in Seattle annually for more than a decade — visitors play the first-person driving survival game Pacific Drive. The game was created by Kirkland-based Ironwood Studios. (MAIN)
7. San Francisco leaders recently voted to urge their transportation agency to ban __________ ________ across the city, and other major cities such as Los Angeles, Seattle and Denver have looked into bans as well. (MAIN)
8. ____________________________ is a serious type of pneumonia caused by the bacteria Legionella. People can get sick when they breathe in small droplets of water or accidentally swallow water containing Legionella into their lungs, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The bacteria do not spread person to person, and most healthy people exposed to Legionella do not get sick. (MAIN)
9. Costco has a basic formula. What is it? (BUSINESS)
10. Boeing increasingly engineered its airliners using computers. The ________ was the first airliner to be developed using computer-aided design. (BUSINESS)
11. TODAY IN HISTORY: During the Suez Canal crisis, Israel invaded Egypt’s Sinai Peninsula. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
12. TODAY IN HISTORY: Osama bin Laden, in a videotaped statement, directly admitted for the first time that he’d ordered the Sept. 11 attacks, and told Americans “The best way to avoid another Manhattan” was to stop threatening Muslims’ security. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
13. A Hamas leader said in 2021 that the group had ______ miles of tunnels under the Gaza Strip. (MAIN)
14. A woman charged with vehicular homicide by King County prosecutors has fled to China, a country the U.S. does not have an ___________ treaty with, according to law enforcement. (MAIN)
15. Officially, it’s the ______ that the Seahawks are throwing it back to this weekend with their retro uniforms and marking Lumen Field to be reminiscent of the Kingdome. (SPORTS)
16. Smartphone cameras became extremely powerful over the last five years. Their leap in quality was largely driven by advancements in computational photography. What is that? (BUSINESS)
17. What is now the leading cause of death for 18- to-45-year-olds? (OPINION)
18. __________ are creatures — typically animals — whose existence have not been proven. Think the Jersey Devil or Loch Ness Monster. (THE MIX)
19. “Instead, let’s talk about what we want our body to do for us and how we want it to be able to function, and let’s work on balanced eating and making sure we’re putting ______ in our bodies at regular intervals and moving for ______.” (THE MIX)