

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, April 14, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. TODAY IN HISTORY: President Abraham Lincoln was shot and mortally wounded by John Wilkes Booth during a performance of "Our American Cousin" at Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
2. An endangered right whale entangled in _____ swims off the coast of New England on Wednesday. Several right whales have died this year off Georgia and Massachusetts. (MAIN)
3. The last of 174 people stranded in cable cars high above a mountain in southern _____ were brought to safety Saturday, nearly 23 hours after one pod hit a pole and burst open. (MAIN)
4. A top-ranking official Chinese official reaffirmed ties with _____ during a meeting Saturday with the country's leader Kim Jong Un in the capital Pyongyang, China's state media reported, in the highest-level talks between the allies in years. (MAIN)
5. In a new sign of Venezuelans' simmering desperation, a poll released this week shows that _____% of Venezuelans would consider leaving the South American nation if ruler Nicolás Maduro is declared the winner of July's presidential election. (MAIN)
6. Thousands of protesters gathered in the capital of Niger on Saturday called for the withdrawal of _____ stationed in the West African nation, only days after Russia delivered its own set of military equipment and instructors to the country's military. (MAIN)
7. Momofuku, a food and restaurant brand started by food mogul David Chang, said it won't defend its trademark on the name " _____ " after it sparked an outcry by sending cease-and-desist letters to other businesses using the term. (MAIN)
8. The second weekend in April has brought drier, warmer conditions to the Seattle area as the region prepares to see its first _____ p.m. sunset of the year Monday. (MAIN)
9. Trump and his team have laid out a plan for mass roundups of undocumented immigrants and large detention camps holding people awaiting deportation flights. Stephen Miller, a top Trump adviser, said in a November podcast this "monumental" effort would seek to remove at least _____ million undocumented immigrants throughout the country. (NW)
10. For example, a house purchased for $32,000 in Magnolia in 1965 would be worth around $ _____ in today's purchasing power, according to the handy federal Bureau of Labor Statistics inflation calculator. Single-family detached houses in the neighborhood are now priced in the millions. (BUSINESS)