

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, April 21, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The House swiftly approved $_____ billion in foreign aid for Ukraine, Israel and other U.S. allies in a rare Saturday session as Democrats and Republicans banded together after months of hard-right resistance over renewed American support for repelling Russia's invasion of Ukraine. (MAIN)
2. The arrival of the East Link Starter Line, a ___-mile light rail route from South Bellevue to Microsoft headquarters in Redmond, will change how Eastsiders think about getting around. (MAIN)
3. Foreign policy matters are not typically the top issue for American voters. This November is expected to be no different, with the _____ and _____ carrying greater resonance. (MAIN)
4. Many of the more than 100 Columbia University and Barnard College students who were arrested after refusing to leave a pro-Palestinian encampment on campus Thursday woke up to a chilly new reality this past week. What did they learn? (MAIN)
5. The United States will begin plans to withdraw troops from _____, U.S. officials said Saturday, in what experts say is a blow to Washington and its allies in the region in terms of staging security operations in the Sahel. The planned departure comes as U.S. officials said they were trying to find a new military agreement. (MAIN)
6. TikTok has _____ million U.S. users. (MAIN)
7. An 11-year-old girl named Ruby Reynolds found a fossil from another ichthyosaur. What does it appear to be? (MAIN)
8. The United Auto Workers' overwhelming election victory at a Volkswagen plant in Tennessee is giving the union hope that it can make broader inroads in the South, the least _____ part of the country. (MAIN)
9. Peters, a 24-year-old, third year Seattle University law school student, "had some time on her hands" — given her list of accomplishments, it's hard to see how — so she found a problem and decided to address it, in the process providing _____ to hundreds of children at two elementary schools in Shoreline. (NW)
10. U.K. businesses are moving more traditional head-office jobs outside of London. Why? (JOBS)