

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, April 28, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. "We will no longer have to wait years for light rail to come to Bellevue, it will be every 10 minutes," said U.S. Sen. Patty Murray, who has championed light rail for decades, ushering much federal money to the effort. The ____-mile corridor extends from the South Bellevue Station next to Interstate 90 to the Redmond Technology Station, sandwiched among three Microsoft campuses. (MAIN)
2. As political and social tensions reach a boiling point, groups are bringing people with differing views together to turn down the heat by doing what? (MAIN)
3. These teenagers were at the Native Youth Olympics, a statewide competition that attracts hundreds of Alaska Native athletes each year and pays tribute to what? (MAIN)
4. Why is Cuba experiencing a shortage of cash? (MAIN)
5. Sharing oral histories, gatherings and events through film, podcasts, live events — and soon a digital library — Children of the Setting Sun defies the traditional categories of a "media" group. The cadre of Coast Salish youth, Indigenous artists and creators from across the region and beyond are guided in the projects they pursue by a sounding board of local elders and others. What is their goal? (NW)
6. One out of every three bites of food you eat depends on the work of _____, which help plants reproduce, according to the U.S. (NW)
7. Instead of shrinking their search to smaller homes, they opted to look for something larger with space for a tenant whose rent could offset their mortgage — a technique many buyers call what? (BUSINESS)
8. Over the last decade, streaming video platforms have gradually siphoned away viewers from traditional TV networks. But next month, they will be confronting the legacy outlets on their own turf — by going directly for what? (BUSINESS)
9. What is the new Ai Pin? (BUSINESS)
10. _____ — defined as non-executives who oversee employees — made up almost a third of layoffs, up from 20% in 2018, according to an analysis by Live Data Technologies for Bloomberg News. (JOBS)