

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, May 19, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. In a Marquette Law School poll conducted in March, 77% of registered voters said they consider Biden, who is 81, what? (MAIN)
2. A collision of climate change, urban sprawl and poor infrastructure has pushed Mexico City to the brink of a profound _____ crisis. (MAIN)
3. The Pentagon is rushing to expand its capacity to wage war in _____, convinced that rapid advances by China and Russia in space-based operations pose a growing threat to U.S. troops and other military assets on the ground and U.S. satellites in orbit. (MAIN)
4. The Great Mosque of _____ — the world's largest mud-brick building — used to draw tens of thousands of tourists to central Mali every year. Now it's threatened by conflict between jihadi rebels, government forces and other groups. (MAIN)
5. Newly minted Michelin-starred chef Arturo Rivera Martínez stood over an insanely hot grill last week at the first _____ ever to get a coveted star from the French dining guide, and did exactly the same thing he's been doing for 20 years: searing meat. (MAIN)
6. The state is projected to need _____ million homes by 2044, with nearly half affordable to people with the lowest incomes. (BUSINESS)
7. High _____ haven't crashed the financial system, set off a wave of bankruptcies or caused the recession that many economists feared. But for millions of low- and moderate-income families, high rates are taking a toll. (BUSINESS)
8. Long considered a tech hinterland, _____ is fast emerging as a center of gravity for the industry. (BUSINESS)
9. Every smartphone has an expiration date. That day arrives when the software updates stop coming and you start missing out on new apps and security protections. With most phones, this used to happen after about only three years. But things are finally starting to change. The new number is what? (BUSINESS)
10. Although the jobs considered mentally stimulating covered a wide range, one position stood out — _____. Why? (JOBS)