

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, October 27, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. A group of 21 tribes sued the state in the early 2000s to force the replacement of _____ that, because of their design or lack of maintenance, block salmon and steelhead trout migration. A federal judge, based on the tribes' treaty fishing rights, ordered the state to fix or replace problem culverts running beneath state highways. (MAIN)
2. When it comes to messaging, the two campaigns could not be more different, many Native voters said. It's been 100 years since Native Americans were given the right to vote, with the passage of the Snyder Act in _____, and whichever campaign is able to harness their power in this election could swing some of the most hotly contested counties in the country. (MAIN)
3. Thieves with a nose for fine cheese have pulled off a cheddar rip-off in London. Neal's Yard Dairy said a con artist posing as a wholesale distributor for a major French retailer had made off with 48,488 pounds of award-winning cheddar worth $_____ before the company realized it had been scammed and reported the theft Monday. (MAIN)
4. The _____ and _____ are the light source guiding nocturnal activity for plants and animals — determining when animals emerge from hiding to find food, when plants reproduce and when certain animal species migrate. (MAIN)
5. American Airlines is testing a new technology at three airports across the country during the boarding process that aims to cut down on passengers trying to cut the line. What will the new technology do? (MAIN)
6. The United States has approved $2 billion in arms sales to Taiwan, including the first-time delivery to the self-ruled island of an advanced surface-to-air missile defense system, in a move sure to anger _____. (MAIN)
7. "The Navy recognizes the pain and suffering inflicted upon the Tlingit people, and we acknowledge these wrongful actions resulted in the loss of life, the loss of resources, the loss of culture, and created and inflicted _____ on these clans," he said during the ceremony, which was livestreamed from Angoon. (MAIN)
8. Seattle is the nation's capital for young married couples with no kids but with a ____ or _____. (NW)
9. What are 4 things families can do to save money on car insurance with teen drivers? (BUSINESS)
10. The Greek physician _____, the "father" of Western medicine, allegedly wrote, "Let food be thy medicine and medicine be thy food." (THE MIX)