

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 29, 2024 print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. All over Seattle, _____ have similar hopes and plans. They are eager to replace dated buildings or unused land with affordable homes for rent or for sale, seeing a connection between their faith and the city's housing crisis. (MAIN)
2. Gov. Gavin Newsom _____ a bill Saturday that would have required new cars to beep at drivers if they exceeded the speed limit. California would have become the first to require such systems for all new cars, trucks and buses sold in the state starting in 2030. The bill, aimed at reducing traffic deaths, would have mandated vehicles beep at drivers when they exceed the speed limit by at least 10 mph. The European Union has passed similar legislation to encourage drivers to slow down. (MAIN)
3. Earth's moon will soon have some company — a "mini moon." The mini moon is actually an _____ about the size of a school bus at 33 feet. When it whizzes by Earth on Sunday, it will be temporarily trapped by our planet's gravity and orbit the globe — but only for about two months. (MAIN)
4. TODAY IN HISTORY: 1954: Willie Mays of the New York Giants made a running, over-the-shoulder catch of a ball hit by Vic Wertz of the Cleveland Indians in Game 1 of the 1954 World Series; " _____ " would become one of the most famous plays in baseball history. (MAIN)
5. Lifted by a SpaceX Falcon 9 rocket, two astronauts left Earth on Saturday afternoon, headed where? (MAIN)
6. The work is part of DNR's 20-year plan to improve forest health in Central and Eastern Washington and includes not only mechanical treatments like the mower but also _____. It also marks a different approach to managing forestland and wildland firefighting in the West. (NW)
7. Since COVID, outstanding _____ debt nationwide has been on the rise, primarily driven by higher prices for basic items like food and rent, according to federal bank data and the credit bureaus. (BUSINESS)
8. An armada of racing sailboats is a common enough sight on a Seattle summer evening, but the boats heading out from Shilshole Bay Marina in Ballard from Sept. 28 to Oct. 5 aren't just part of a run-of-the-mill casual race. For the first time, Seattle will host the _____, drawing 56 teams from 11 countries who will test their mettle against the shifty winds and tricky currents of Puget Sound. (THE MIX)
9. What is irritable bowel syndrome (IBS)? What is the estimated amount of U.S. adults that have it? (THE MIX)

10. Bulbs like daffodils, tulips and crocus adore the Pacific Northwest's climate — the Skagit Valley alone grows roughly 1000 acres of daffodil and tulip fields — and _____ is the perfect time to plant for abundant spring blooms. (AT HOME IN THE NW)