

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, January 12, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1.

What is this picture of? Where are they and what are they doing?
(MAIN)

2. TODAY IN HISTORY: Aviator Amelia Earhart completed an 18-hour trip from Honolulu to Oakland, Calif., making her the first person to fly solo across any part of the Pacific Ocean. What year did this take place?
(MAIN)
3. “This will be the costliest wildfire in California modern history and also very likely the costliest wildfire in U.S. modern history.” Why?
(MAIN)
4. The foundational building block for Jeff Bezos’ space dreams is finally ready to launch. A New Glenn rocket — built by Blue Origin, the rocket company that Bezos started nearly a quarter century ago — is sitting on a launchpad at Cape Canaveral Space Force Station in Florida. It is as tall as a ___-story building, and its voluminous nose cone can carry larger satellites and payloads than other rockets in operation today. (MAIN)
5. On Seattle’s reinvigorated waterfront, fresh rain pulls out the scent of Douglas fir from a new art installation: a series of posts and beams inspired by traditional Indigenous _____ architecture. (NW)
6. The Philipps are part of a resurgence of interest in growing _____ among American small farmers in search of a cash crop, and among cooks and backyard gardeners seeking the thrill of growing the spice. Today, farms are growing saffron in California, Washington, Texas, Pennsylvania and Vermont. (BUSINESS)
7. A study of 83,000 older adults from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, conducted over 15 years, compared people who worked past 65 with those who stopped. What did the data suggest? (JOBS)
8. Metsker Maps in Pike Place Market was founded in 1901 by Charles F. Metsker as a vital resource for whom? (THE MIX)
9. Sujin Witherspoon is a 22-year-old UW graduate and has a debut novel, “_____,” a coming-of-age romantic comedy that takes place at a Korean cafe in Seattle, nestled in an alleyway off Sixth Avenue. Inspired by a real Korean cafe in Tacoma and influenced by Witherspoon’s background as a Korean American, the book explores mixed identity, family dynamics, the power of social media and falling in love as a teenager.

10. The _____ style brings a cozy nostalgia to home décor, blending the past's charm with modern living's practicality. This trend includes floral patterns, heirloom furniture and warm, welcoming spaces that feel vintage and functional. (AT HOME IN THE NW)