

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, January 5, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Many residents believe the number of dogs _____ - _____ in areas they're not supposed to be, has spiked since the pandemic, turning Seattle's parks and beaches into unsanctioned dog parks. While dog owners contend, they just want a share of parks for their furry family members, others say unleashed dogs make it impossible for them to use the space at all. Upset park-goers are submitting complaints to the city in record numbers. (MAIN)
2. _____, the beloved science guy with Seattle roots, was awarded a Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Joe Biden on Saturday at the White House. (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: Construction began on the Golden Gate Bridge. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
4. TODAY IN HISTORY: "Rapper's Delight," by The Sugarhill Gang, became the first hip-hop song to reach the Billboard Top 40. What year did this take place?
5. _____ extended public farewell began Saturday in Georgia, with the 39th U.S. president's flag-draped casket tracing his long arc from the Depression-era South and family farming business to the pinnacle of American political power and decades as a global humanitarian. (MAIN)
6. A cartoonist has decided to quit her job at The Washington Post after an editor rejected her sketch of the newspaper's owner and other media executives bowing before President-elect Donald Trump. Ann Telnaes posted a message Friday on the online platform Substack saying that she drew a cartoon showing a group of media executives bowing before Trump while offering him bags of money, including Post owner and Amazon founder _____. (MAIN)
7. The November group was the largest one granted citizenship since Ghana began the "Year of the Return" program, aimed at attracting the _____, in 2019. It marked 400 years since the first African slaves arrived in Virginia in 1619. (MAIN)
8. Tomiko Itooka, a Japanese woman who was the world's oldest person according to Guinness World Records, has died, an Ashiya city official said Saturday. She was _____. (MAIN)
9. It's now half a decade since anything in the U.S. housing market could be considered normal. The pandemic boom was followed by a transaction bust, induced by the central bank, that did little to lower sky-high prices. Going into 2025, a lack of _____ continues to sideline buyers, while potential sellers feel stuck in place, tied down by COVID-era mortgages. (BUSINESS)

10. First, consider the bachelor pad, what comes to mind? A mattress on the floor? Old takeout in the fridge? Think again. On Tik- Tok, young men with an interest in interior design and penchant for tidiness are showing off their curated, urban homes for the world to see. Lebowitz is one in a new class of content creators who are sharing their homes' interiors to defy expectations about men and their living habits. "The trend is so much bigger than me," he said. What is the "new" trending term replacing bachelor pad? (AT HOME IN THE NW)