

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, February 9, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. TODAY IN HISTORY: The Beatles made their first live American television appearance on "The Ed Sullivan Show," broadcast from New York on CBS. The quartet played five songs, including "She Loves You" and "I Want to Hold Your Hand," to a crowd of screaming teenagers in person and more than 70 million viewers across the country. What year did this happen? (MAIN)
2. TODAY IN HISTORY: Halley's comet made its closest pass by Earth since 1910. (The comet's next appearance will be in 2061). What year did this happen?
3. They're at the top of their sport. They run, weave and go airborne. And they went all out for this weekend's championship. Sorry — no, they're not the Chiefs or the Eagles. They're the _____ at the Westminster Kennel Club show, which began Saturday by showcasing agility and other dog sports. (MAIN)
4. A stream in a suburb of Buenos Aires, the Argentine capital, turned bright red this past week, prompting residents to express concern that _____ could be to blame. (MAIN)
5. Over 500 _____ were stolen from Luna Park Cafe on Wednesday morning. (MAIN)
6. Is snow in Seattle's 5-day forecast? (MAIN)
7. With dozens of outdoor preschools in Washington and a growing number across the U.S., more are focusing on what? (NW)
8. Abundant research has shown that _____ helps maintain physical function and prevent chronic disease as we get older. (THE MIX)
9. "[The _____ is] one of the most important parts of the kitchen. I actually think of it as a piece of art." — Allison Bryan, the founder of Open Studio Collective, an architecture and design firm with an office in Portland. (AT HOME IN THE NW)
10. What is hydrogeology? (AT HOME IN THE NW)