

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 9, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. To replace electricity generated by coal and methane gas, the state will need 22 gigawatts of renewable energy by _____, according to estimates from nonprofit Clean Energy Transition Institute. (MAIN)
2. A day-old baby elephant walks with its family at the Cologne Zoo in Cologne, Germany, on Saturday. What is unique about this herd and how it's treated within the zoo? (MAIN)

3. TODAY IN HISTORY: During World War II, over 300 U.S. B-29 bombers began Operation Meetinghouse, a massive firebombing raid on Tokyo. The raid killed an estimated 100,000 civilians, left 1 million homeless and destroyed 16 square miles of the city. What year did this take place? (MAIN)
4. Where is the hot place to be seen for young Indians? (MAIN)

5. Women took to the streets of cities across Europe, Africa, South America and elsewhere to mark International Women's Day with demands for ending what? (MAIN)

6. Price tags hang from pants at Lifelong Thrift on Capitol Hill. Gone are the days of finding lightly used clothes for a _____ — thrift stores compete with knowledgeable online resellers who market to niche customers. (MAIN)

7. What 3A and 4A high school boys' and girls' teams took the state championship this weekend? (SPORTS)
8. President Donald Trump's sweeping cuts to the federal workforce and government spending have reverberated across Indian Country, leaving tribes with deep uncertainty about what programs? (NW)
9. In recent years, concertgoers have paid eye-popping prices for tickets to see popular artists such as Beyoncé, Taylor Swift and Oasis on tour. But Generation Z fans — those born between 1997 and 2012 — are paying much more for concert tickets than previous generations did when they were young adults. In 1996, the average ticket price for the top 100 tours was $_____, or about $52 adjusted for inflation. By 2024, average ticket prices had risen to $_____. The live music industry has put today's young adults in an impossibly expensive position. (BUSINESS)
10. What is the latest "wet room" concept in luxury bathrooms? (AT HOME IN THE NW)