

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, April 20, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. In what was billed as the world's first half-marathon for androids, just _____ out of 21 robotic runners completed the race in Beijing's southern tech hub of E-Town within the allotted four hours. The winner was 5-foot-10 Tiangong Ultra, who made it to the finish line in two hours and 40 minutes, far behind the hourlong performance of the human gold medalists. The man-versus-machine competition was presented as a showcase for China's ambition in areas from AI to robotics to semiconductors. (MAIN)
2. Thousands of people also marched through downtown Portland, while in San Francisco, hundreds spelled out the words "_____ & _____" on a sandy beach along the Pacific Ocean, also with an inverted U.S. flag. (MAIN)
3. Thousands of people came to Lexington, Mass., just before dawn on Saturday to witness a reenactment of how the _____ began 250 years ago, with the blast of gunshot and a trail of colonial spin. (MAIN)
4. President Donald Trump would put the credibility of the dollar on the line and destabilize the U.S. economy if he did what? (MAIN)
5. Tennessee parted ways with quarterback Nico Iamaleava earlier this month after a dispute about his _____ contract. (SPORTS)
6. People ask the Capitol Hill _____ for everything from wealth to prosperity to fertility to world peace. (NW)
7. What 4 things threaten to wipe out as much as 70% or more of the nation's honeybee colonies this year, potentially the most devastating loss that the nation has ever seen? (BUSINESS)
8. Celsius bought Alani Nu for $_____ billion in February. Celsius had "admired that brand for many years" and liked that it was going after a growing segment within the energy drink market, CEO John Fieldly said at a conference. Celsius declined a request for an interview. (BUSINESS)
9. Tariffs are taxes on businesses and customers. Most mainstream economists agree they are inflationary and invite what? (BUSINESS)
10. This week, rocket company _____ sent six women to the edge of space, the first time an all-female crew made the trip since Soviet cosmonaut Valentina Tereshkova completed a three-day solo mission more than six decades ago. (OPINION)