

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, June 8, 2025, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The rise of locally made _____ is a tale of intertwining communities across the Canada-U.S. border (MAIN)
2. Disneyland will begin construction this fall on a new Coco boat ride at Disney California Adventure as part of the $_____ billion Disneyland Forward expansion plan. (MAIN)
3. A _____ at a Chicago zoo gave birth to a calf early Saturday morning with the help of a fellow mom, in a successful birth recorded on video by zoo staff. (MAIN)
4. The Trump administration said it planned to deploy the _____ to Los Angeles on Saturday after federal immigration agents in riot gear squared off with hundreds of protesters for a second consecutive day. (MAIN)
5. President Donald Trump is not backing off his battle with Elon Musk, saying Saturday that he has no desire to repair their relationship and warning that his former ally and campaign benefactor could face "serious consequences" if he tries to help _____ in upcoming elections. (MAIN)
6. OpenAI, the maker of Chat- GPT, has a plan to overhaul college education. How? (MAIN)
7. When students in Africa pine for an education overseas, the United States is often not top of mind. For many, it is _____. (MAIN)
8. Gen Z made up only _____% of patrons at sit-down, mid-price casual dining establishments in 2024, according to Datassential, a market research firm. (BUSINESS)
9. For some American consumers, "buy now, pay later" loans aren't just for big-ticket items like televisions and vacations. They're for _____, too. (BUSINESS)
10. "When in doubt, give it drought. _____ are designed to store water and can go weeks or even months without it. You can kill it in two weeks by watering it every day." (AT HOME IN THE NW)