

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 1, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. An Oregon company is pulling more than 55,000 pounds of frozen blueberries that might be contaminated with _____. (MAIN)
2. TODAY IN HISTORY: Pennsylvania becomes first U.S. state to abolish slavery (for newborns only). What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
3. TODAY IN HISTORY: President Ulysses S. Grant signs the Yellowstone National Park Protection Act into law, creating America's first national park. What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
4. TODAY IN HISTORY: U.S. explodes Castle Bravo, a 15-megaton hydrogen bomb at Bikini Atoll, which accidentally becomes the most powerful nuclear device ever detonated by the U.S. What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
5. Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, the supreme leader of Iran who led the Islamic Republic for more than three decades, was killed Saturday after the U.S. and Israel launched airstrikes on _____, according to Israeli officials and President Donald Trump. He was 86. (MAIN)
6. Washington state's federal lawmakers largely condemned the United States' attack on Iran, calling it what two things, just hours after President Donald Trump authorized the bombing campaign with the intent of replacing Iran's leaders and destroying its nuclear program.

_____ (MAIN)
7. A prehistoric skeleton has been found in an intricate underwater cave system along Mexico's Caribbean coast, an area that flooded at the end of the last ice age _____ years ago, according to a cave-diving archaeologist who made the find with others. (MAIN)
8. From the coast of Queensland to the bush of the Northern Territory, something rather odd has happened in some homes in Australia: Smartphones lie unnoticed on the kitchen table in the morning, children are scrolling significantly less, and family members are interacting with each other much more. It's been almost three months since Australia became the first country in the world to introduce a general social media ban for those under _____. (MAIN)
9. Michelangelo's "The Last Judgment" is getting a facial, with restorers removing a chalky white film of _____ that has accumulated over the Renaissance masterpiece since its last major renovation three decades ago. (MAIN)
10. Rainworks founder Peregrine Church, holding the "invisible spray" and a stencil, and creative lead Kamil Caputis, with one of their sidewalk creations on Monday on Beacon Hill. The tidal wave display activates in the _____ . (NW)