

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, March 29, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The Pentagon is preparing for weeks of ground operations in _____, U.S. officials said, as thousands of American soldiers and Marines arrive in the Middle East for what could become a dangerous new phase of the war should President Donald Trump choose to escalate. (MAIN)
 2. Washington's attorney general took the mic Saturday at Cal Anderson Park, in front of thousands of Seattleites opposed to President Donald Trump. "This to me looks like _____ is being made," said Nick Brown, whose office has pushed back against Trump through dozens of lawsuits. (MAIN)
 3. Just like that, Seattle's light rail became a region encompassing, _____-mile system Saturday, with the not-so-simple crossing atop a floating bridge. (MAIN)
 4. Swiss food giant Nestlé says about 12 tons, or _____ candy bars, of its KitKat chocolate bars were stolen after leaving its production site in Italy earlier this week for Poland. (MAIN)
 5. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy on Saturday made unannounced visits to the United Arab Emirates and Qatar as Ukraine seeks to use its _____ expertise to help Gulf Arab states blunt Iran's attacks during the war in the Middle East. (MAIN)
 6. Indonesia on Saturday began implementing a new government regulation approved this month that bans children younger than _____ from access to digital platforms that could expose them to pornography, cyberbullying, online scams and addiction. (MAIN)
 7. Several U.S. airports advised travelers on Saturday to arrive at least _____ hours before their flights because of long security lines even after President Donald Trump said Transportation Security Administration workers would be paid by tapping funds from his 2025 tax and spending bill. (MAIN)
 8. Pope Leo XIV urged residents of the principality of Monaco on Saturday to use their wealth and influence for _____ and reject the "idolatry of power and money" that is fueling wars around the world. (MAIN)
 9. Gubernatorial candidate Dean Roy says his political ambitions started in eighth grade. That was last year. After working as a legislative page at the Vermont Statehouse, the 14-year-old freshman at Stowe High School has his sights set on the corner office. In November, he'll be what? (MAIN)
-
10. With persisting high mortgage rates and home prices, more Washington homebuyers — especially in King County — are turning to a riskier type of loan that was last popular leading up to the 2008 financial crisis.

Adjustable-rate mortgages-what are they? (BUSINESS)
