

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 13, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Dario Amodei, the CEO of Anthropic, called for a global slowdown of _____. "We must slow the pace at which we improve the capabilities of AI models. Progress will still seem fast." (MAIN)
2. A handful of U.S. states with some of the most competitive congressional races in the country are caught in the crosshairs of President Donald Trump's escalating _____ with Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney. (MAIN)
3. LONDON — Reform UK, the anti-immigration party led by Brexit campaigner Nigel Farage, received 72 million pounds ($97 million) from two cryptocurrency billionaires this weekend, fueling concerns about money in _____. (MAIN)
4. Brigid Lynch was working along a wooded creek in a mountainous part of the San Francisco Bay Area when something that didn't look like the rocks she'd been studying caught her eye. It turned out to be the fossilized tooth of a _____. (MAIN)
5. Nearly half a billion birds may soar across the United States in the next two weeks during their annual fall migration, prompting requests for residents to turn off or dim _____ to help ensure their safe flight. (MAIN)
6. The 3.1-mile "Uniting Table" was sprawled along Unirii Boulevard to Constitution Square in front of Bucharest's massive communist-era Palace of Parliament. The Romania-based organizers Bloom The World Association were awarded a certificate by Guinness World Records for the "longest table made from _____. The event brought together a reported 20,000 people at the many tables, many of which were decorated with flowers and snacks. (MAIN)
7. For the theater industry struggling to remain relevant amid sweeping changes in _____ and _____, that result was a real achievement. Adjusted for inflation, ticket revenue rose 26% from last summer. (MAIN)
8. Evergreen Goodwill, the nonprofit overseeing Seattle-area Goodwill locations, has lost over $22 million in recent years. Labor costs are rising, and Evergreen Goodwill isn't selling enough items to offset them. Now, a former Amazon executive is taking a cue from the tech world to redefine Evergreen Goodwill's footprint and role in the community and save it from collapse. After years of mounting losses, Evergreen Goodwill is _____, _____, _____, _____ and developing its _____. (BUSINESS)

9. He'd encountered a common new frustration for renters and buyers: real estate listings edited with _____. Uploading the listing images to OpenAI's verification tool confirmed they had been generated with artificial intelligence. (BUSINESS)
10. Dyson has introduced a $_____ toothbrush that uses artificial intelligence and a built-in camera to give real-time feedback, the latest in a growing subset of gadgets that put AI and video in sometimes unconventional places. (BUSINESS)