

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 20, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The _____ would require the biggest AI labs, including Anthropic — maker of Claude — to establish a mechanism that could shut down their systems quickly. (MAIN)
2. Several of the nation's largest left-leaning voter engagement and racial justice organizations are facing steep funding shortfalls and staffing cutbacks just as voting is getting underway in an election that will determine control of _____ for the final two years of President Donald Trump's term. (MAIN)
3. Russia has suggested that sweeping new U.S. legislation aimed at pressuring Moscow to end the war in Ukraine will backfire, warning that new U.S. sanctions would risk undoing President Donald Trump's steps toward _____. (MAIN)
4. Reporters from three major news organizations — CNN, MS NOW and Politico were denied access to the White House on Saturday, a day after President Donald Trump said he was barring them because of reporting he found to be "_____." (MAIN)
5. The footwear and apparel company Converse said this past week that it had taken down a sneaker advertisement that set off intense backlash as social media users said it was evocative of _____ imagery. (MAIN)
6. The line stretched the entire length of the steep cobblestone bridge in the historic part of town. Many had waited a year to participate in the event and were eager to register before the spots filled. All of them held the same thing in their hands Tuesday afternoon: a _____. (MAIN)
7. Drivers in vehicles built to move low and slow cruised Saturday down San Francisco's Mission Street in celebration of one of the city's most distinctive cultural traditions: _____. (MAIN)
8. What is this and what company is building it? (BUSINESS)

9. Affordable used cars are in tight supply, so shoppers with tight budgets may have to settle for an older model with higher mileage. The average 3-year-old car costs about $_____, according to an analysis in August from iSeeCars, an online car search site. (BUSINESS)

10. Two of California's largest universities are joining the rush to embed _____ and new digital technologies into their coursework as the academic year begins, betting that degrees built partly or entirely around AI will launch careers and pay off after graduation. (JOBS)