

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, September 6, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. The flock cameras, which began rapidly appearing by the tens of thousands on American roads in recent years, track vehicles and feed _____. (MAIN)
2. More than _____ people remain missing, according to Nepal's disaster management agency. (MAIN)
3. Hundreds of masked _____ - _____ protesters blocked roads leading to Britain's busiest ferry port on Saturday, clogging traffic and disrupting travelers and cargo vehicles heading for France. (MAIN)
4. After years of negotiations, a British museum has agreed to return a colonial-era collection of _____ to the Indigenous Naga people of the Indian subcontinent. (MAIN)
5. The political group associated with President Donald Trump is spending $_____ million on television and digital advertisements in the Texas Senate race, according to a Saturday filing with the Federal Election Commission. (MAIN)
6. Boekhandel Dominicanen, a Dominican church that was converted into a bookstore in Maastricht, Netherlands, is an example of how churches are being transformed as Europe's ties to _____ fade. (MAIN)
7. The Trump administration is moving to allow married couples with a stay-at-home spouse to collect childcare subsidies, a policy championed by Vice President JD Vance, using funds from a federal program intended to assist working parents. Under the new rule, parents who stay home with their children could benefit from the program, which typically provides about $_____ a child each year, potentially reshaping which families receive federal childcare money. (MAIN)
8. Geologists have descended into Spokane this month after the catastrophic Spokane Complex fires to assess the likelihood of _____. (NW)
9. _____, 92, the feminist crusader who galvanized the modern women's movement, helping millions of women develop a sense of self-worth and gain a measure of equality at home, at work and in society at large, died Wednesday at her home in New York City. For more than half a century, she personified the women's movement and became its most enduring symbol; her tinted aviator glasses and curtain of streaked-blond hair parted in the center made her one of the most recognizable women in the world. She read voraciously, graduated from college with honors and believed fiercely that women should be able to live whatever life they chose. (NW)
10. One of city's main draws for homebuyers is price. It is still possible to find a small starter house for $500,000; however, low-cost houses have become hard to find in _____. (BUSINESS)