

News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, October 11, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Microsoft CEO Satya Nadella said companies should treat powerful artificial intelligence models as potential insider threats, assume they could be compromised and create an " _____ " system to prevent agentic models from going rogue. (MAIN)
2. _____ % of Americans disapprove of conflict as midterms near. (MAIN)
3. Inside the facility, about 1,900 Indian workers for Dr. Reddy's Laboratories work around the clock to manufacture more than 100 generic drugs, including antihistamines, statins and antidepressants. Of the nearly 1 billion oral doses produced there each month, _____ % go to patients in the United States. (BUSINESS)
4. "Because of the war, because of gas prices, we've also seen a rise and a recovery in _____ sales," said Randy Parker, CEO of Hyundai's North America business. (BUSINESS)
5. Doctors and medical advocacy groups have been pleading for years with the Federal Aviation Administration to modernize the mandated contents of emergency _____, whose requirements haven't changed in more than two decades. (BUSINESS)
6. The across-the-board price hikes for iPhones were a sobering reminder that the " _____ " driven by the artificial intelligence boom has left practically no consumer electronics untouched. (BUSINESS)
7. A former Tinder executive has launched a new dating app that invites the community to vote on strangers' compatibility, putting a twist on courtship at a time when singles have grown exhausted with _____. (BUSINESS)
8. In the lead-up to the announcement, Bose didn't have any wired headphones for sale in its online store. In 2022, the company discontinued what was then its last pair of corded noise-canceling earbuds. In the years since, wired products like Apple's EarPods, which sell for just $19, have found traction with younger generations seeking simplistic " _____ " devices. (BUSINESS)
9. Far too many people have developed a fear of fruit ("It has so much sugar!") despite the fact that _____ does not validate that fear. (THE MIX)
10. There are many ways to support the health of your soil and the growth of next year's plants, including adding organic mulch (left) and simply letting fallen _____ remain undisturbed. (AT HOME IN THE NW)