News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, *November 15, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. It's still not clear exactly what went wrong — whether the new equipment was faulty or it was installed incorrectly — but a router began to flood the FAA's other routers. The FAA reported over 1,000 connection attempts every four to five seconds. That data breakdown disrupted air traffic controllers' communication with aircraft and the FAA's radar systems, prompting the nationwide ground stop, the FAA's _____ in ____ years. (MAIN)
2. International health experts have determined the United States has lost its status as a country that eliminated the continuous spread of _____, according to a person familiar with the matter who spoke on the condition of anonymity because the official announcement is pending. Losing measles-elimination status erases a major public health achievement the country attained 26 years ago and comes as the United States faces its worst outbreak of the disease in decades. (MAIN)
3. Pope Leo XIV on Saturday denounced the "suffering and humiliation" endured by African enslaved people as he made a tangible show of remorse in Peru following his historic apology for the Holy See's own role in legitimizing what? (MAIN)
   _____
4. High surf and coastal flood warnings and advisories were in effect along the coast as the National Weather Service advised people to stay out of the water and not even get near it. "No _____ of the crashing waves is worth losing your life," said Roger Gass, a meteorologist at the weather service office in Monterey, Calif. (MAIN)
5. Tens of thousands of people marched through more than 30 cities and towns across Portugal on Saturday in the largest protest yet against soaring _____ _____ that many say have put buying or renting a home beyond their reach. (MAIN)
6. Ukrainian military operations were disrupted again this past week along the front lines because of restrictions on _____, the satellite internet system developed by Elon Musk's SpaceX and controlled by the U.S. government, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said Friday night. (MAIN)
7. Idaho and the Trump administration are locking horns over who controls the flow of _____ to the Idaho National Laboratory in a case that pits America's nuclear ambition against the bedrock rules of Western water policy — and the state sovereignty that governs it. (MAIN)
8. The rapid expansion of artificial intelligence is exposing gaps in data center environmental reporting, making it hard to assess the industry's

_____ _____, according to carbon disclosure specialist CDP. (BUSINESS)

9. Facing rising prices and uncertainty, many local farmers are welcoming visitors to experience _____ _____. (BUSINESS)
10. In the past few decades, women have made tremendous strides in the workplace. But many working women remain the default _____ in their families — and, as new research from the Pew Research Center shows, that's contributing to the persistent gender pay gap and holding some women back in their careers. (BUSINESS)