News Break Scavenger Hunt

Sunday's News Break challenges you to hunt through the Sunday, *November 8, 2026, print replica of The Seattle Times to find answers to the following questions.

1. Today in history: Spanish conquistador Hernán Cortés and his soldiers entered the Aztec capital of Tenochtitlán, site of present-day Mexico City, welcomed by its ruler Moctezuma II. Cortés' expedition would bring about the downfall of the Aztec empire. What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
2. Today in history: Adolf Hitler launched his first attempt at seizing power in Germany with a failed coup in Munich that came to be known as the "Beer Hall Putsch." What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
3. Today in history: Democrat John F. Kennedy won the U.S. presidential election over Republican Vice President Richard M. Nixon. What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
4. Today in history: Notre-Dame Cathedral's eight restored north tower bells ring together for the first time since the devastating 2019 fire. What year did this take place? _____ (MAIN)
5. Want to fly to the moon and help build a permanent lunar base? NASA is accepting applications for a new astronaut class that will help grow the _____ program. (MAIN)
6. Clergy members and other Democratic candidates with an unapologetically Christian message to "_____ _____ _____" helped their party flip control of Congress. (MAIN)
7. Elon Musk spent at least $_____ million in a gambit to help Republicans keep control of Congress, an amount roughly equivalent to someone on a $100,000 annual salary saving every penny for 4,400 years. (MAIN)
8. Across wide stretches of the sun-bleached Sonoran desert in Arizona, thousands of retired aircraft sit nose-to-tail in graveyards of metal known as boneyards. Many of their engines haven't been fired up for years. But America's soaring demand for electricity to power data centers is bringing them back to life. Several companies are racing to strip the engines out of old aircraft to convert them into _____ _____. And data centers, desperate for power, are snapping them up. (BUSINESS)
9. We turned back the clocks last Sunday, which means it gets darker earlier in the evening. What is this term called? _____ _____ _____(THE MIX)
10. While there is not a lot of scientific research on smoothies or blended fruit, what research there is has found that, depending on the type of fruit, blended fruit has the same effect or even less of an effect on _____ _____ compared with the whole fruit. (THE MIX)